

THE WORRIED AXOLOTL

An old and infirm axolotl
Enquired of Charles Darwin "Pray, what'l
They do when I die?
Will they soak me in lye,
Or pickl my bones in a botl?"

Said Charles "You may worry a litl
Concerning your final aquitl,
But while you're alive,
If you ask, who'll survive,
I can tell you at once: the most fit'l."
