

The International Workshop on the Molecular Biology of Axolotls and other Urodeles

Indianapolis, Indiana, USA

October 13-16, 1993

An Invitation

Please come for three days of provocative discussion, a poster session, a tour of the Axolotl Colony, and an eight-hour demonstration and training session on molecular and surgical methods.

A diverse group of scientists is being assembled to lead the discussion sessions, including Dr. John B. Armstrong of the University of Ottawa, Dr. Makoto Asashima of the University of Tokyo, Dr. Jean-Claude Beetschen of Université Paul Sabatier, Dr. Charlemagne of Université Pierre & Marie Curie, Dr. Bernd Fritsch of Creighton University, Dr. Sally Frost-Mason of the University of Kansas, Dr. Jaqueline Geraudie of Université de Paris-Sud, Dr. Larry Lemanski of the State University of New York, Dr. Mats-Olof Mattsson of the University of Umeå, Dr. Linda Maxson of Pennsylvania State University, and Dr. H. Bradley Shaffer of the University of California, Davis.

The meeting is being held at the University Place Conference Center on the Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis Campus.

The advance registration fee is $100 for senior scientists and $75 for students. Breakfast and lunch are included with the registration fee. Rooms are available at the Conference Center Hotel for $84/night for single occupancy and $99/night for double occupancy.

For further information contact Susan Duhon at the Indiana University Axolotl Colony.
